Introduction

The Dance Space is a new building for dance in the centre of Brighton.

It is a place where everyone can come to dance or watch dancing.

The Dance Space opens on Saturday 16 July 2022.

A week of celebrations

We are having a week of celebrations when we open The Dance Space.

There will be:

- Performances you can watch.

- Dances you can join in with.

- New types of dance you can learn.

The events include:

- Folk dancing mixed with hip-hop.

- A performance by Janine Harrington, with 5 dancers and new music.

- Children's street dance classes.

- The Stopgap Dance Company.

- A performance by Drishti Dance's Youth Dance Company.

- Classes to learn about South Asian Dance.

- Dance classes for people over age 55.

- Morris dancing from Brighton Morris.

- Morning exercises for dancers.

- A chance to learn Salsa dancing from Central and South America.

- The Magic Chocolate Show with people from the Sharon Collins Resource Centre.

- Carnival Collective - a carnival band.

- A dance class run by an Australian dance artist.

- A chance to learn Voguing - it is a type of dance created by Queer and People of Colour in New York.

- Dance performances by:
  - Lîla Dance.
  - O'Driscoll Collective.
  - Marina Studios.
  - Ceyda Tanc Youth Dance.
  - Thick and Tight.

The Welcome Project

We want everyone to be welcome at The Dance Space.

We have been working with local groups so that local people are encouraged to come and take part.

We will be running free monthly classes in movement for older people.

We will have free weekly creative play sessions for nursery children.

Welcome Card

This summer we will give a Welcome Card to people who live very close to The Dance Space. This card lets you go to events for less money.

Hire a room

You can hire a room at The Dance Space for events, training or meetings.

Find out more by:

Support for Artists

Support for Artists is a scheme where we help dancers in their careers.

With this scheme we offer:

- Advice sessions.

- Mentoring - this is when someone experienced in dance gives regular advice to someone new to dance.

- Bursaries - this is money to help you get training.

- Opportunities to get training.
